Instruction #6

Good Faith Defense to Charge of Intent to Defraud

The Indictment in this case is a lengthy and detailed statement setting out the Government's allegations and contentions in this case. It was written by the Government attorneys and is merely the formal process by which charges are brought in federal court. It is not evidence in any respect nor should it be used by you as a summary of the evidence. You should base your verdict solely on the evidence received at trial and the law as I have explained it to you. In addition, by his not guilty plea, the Defendant has plead not guilty to the charges in the Indictment and denies the allegations contained therein.
